The purpose of this amendment is to answer questions from potential offerors.

1. "Would the Government provide an estimated start date of the resulting contract?"

ANSWER: It is anticipated that the contract start date will be July 2005.

2: "Per the DD1423, CDRL's A001 and A007 reflect a due date of five (5) days after the end of each reporting month... it is requested that the due date be changed to the 10th day of the month."

ANSWER: The due date for reporting in the final contract is subject to negotiation.

3. "In accordance with Section L, Paragraph 18 (2) and (3), the Government has provided for estimating purposes $150,000 for materials and $50,000 for travel per year. Is the contractor to assume that their DCAA approved indirect rate(s) applied to these cost is incorporated in the estimates, or will the Government accept this cost in addition to those so stated?"

ANSWER: The contractor should NOT assume that the material and travel costs identified in section L include indirect costs. The subsequent application of any indirect cost should be in accordance with FAR regulations and the offeror's DCAA approved accounting procedures.
